BULLS ENTER 2014 WITH MORE BOWL ASPIRATIONS

The University at Buffalo football team is coming off one of its best seasons in school history, including just its second ever bowl appearance. With a strong nucleus returning, there is much optimism surrounding the Bulls entering 2014.

Buffalo is coming off an 8-5 season, including a school-record six Mid-American Conference wins. The eight regular-season wins were the most in UB's Division I-A era. The Bulls were rewarded with a trip to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

While the Bulls have lost a number of key players from last year's team, including All-American and MAC Defensive Player of the Year Khalil Mack, head coach Jeff Quinn and his staff have done a good job developing young players who are ready to step up and fill the roles.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of the Bulls as they enter summer camp in preparation of the 2014 season that kicks off against Duquense on August 31 at UB Stadium.

JOE LICATA

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

One luxury Coach Quinn will have is a returning starting quarterback in Joe Licata. After starting the final four games of the 2012 campaign, the junior signal caller is coming off his first full season as UB's starter. Licata threw for 2,824 yards and 24 touchdowns while completing 58 percent of his passes. His 24 touchdown passes were one shy of the single season school record. Licata had offseason hip surgery and did not compete in spring drills, but has fully recovered and will be ready for the season.

DEVIN CAMPBELL

With Licata out this spring, it meant some of the younger quarterbacks will got more snaps, which could be beneficial in the long run. One of those quarterbacks is Tony Daniel. The junior served in a backup role last year. He appeared in four games last season and went 4-for-7 for 42 yards and a touchdown. He is a mobile quarterback who can also do damage with his legs.

Collin Michael is a sophomore who has a strong arm and quick feet. He appeared in one game last season in mop up duty. Getting the extra reps in the spring helped him continue to develop.

Craig Slowik worked with the scout team last season as a true freshman.

UB also welcomes incoming freshmen Chris Merchant, ranked the top quarterback prospect out of Canada, and J.R. Zazzara, Central New York's "Mr. Football."

RUNNING BACKS

Coach Quinn will have a huge void to fill in the backfield with the graduation of UB's all-time leading rusher Branden Oliver. Junior Anthone Taylor showed flashes last season and looks to step up and fill that void. Last year, the Huber Heights, OH native rushed for 399 yards and three touchdowns on 82 carries (4.9 avg.). He earned his first career start against Stony Brook and rushed for 118 yards and the game-winning touchdown in the fifth overtime. He rushed for a career-high 154 yards on just 17 carries in a win at Miami (OH).

After playing last season as more of a slot receiver, Devin Campbell will likely return to the backfield where he excelled as a true freshman in 2012. That season, Campbell rushed for 502 yards and two touchdowns, including a 160-yard performance against Ohio.

Jordan Johnson, who sat out his freshman season with an injury, is healthy and, after a strong spring, is ready to contribute to the running game.

Blocking the way will be a pair of fullbacks. Boomer Brock has battle injuries throughout his career, but looks to stay healthy for his final season as he is the best blocking fullback on the roster. Due to injuries, Kendall Patterson made the move from defensive line to fullback and filled in admirably. After continuing to develop in the spring, he will likely see his role increase in 2014.

Other running backs that will continue to develop in their second seasons include James Chambers, Joe Schillace and Diamond Williams.

Incoming freshman Gary Hosey rushed for over 3,500 yards over his junior and senior seasons at Cass Technical High School in Detroit.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Wide receiver is another position that took a hit with the graduation of All-MAC performer Alex Neutz and second leading receiver Fred Lee following the 2013 season. However, the Bulls have some young receivers anxious to step up.

One such receiver is sophomore Boise Ross. As a true freshman, Ross played in nine games and had 13 catches for 156 yards.

Devon Hughes will likely play a more prominent role in 2014. The senior wideout has had 48 receptions for 442 yards and four touchdowns over his career.

Ron Willoughby will challenge for a starting role after playing in 11 games last season and recording three catches for 83 yards.

Besides Ross, Hughes and Willoughby, the Bulls have a trio of other veterans to lean on. John Dunmore, Malcolm Robinson and Cordero Dixon have all proven to be productive receivers over their careers.

Marcus McGill was having a promising offseason and camp last year before an injury in the third game sidelined him for the remainder of the season. The junior from Rochester is healthy and ready to make an impact.

In addition, young speedsters Jamarl Eiland and Jacob Martinez will likely be added to the rotation after redshirting last season. Walk-on Jordan Shay has also shown some promise.

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end is a position that has become more and more prominent in recent years. The Bulls will return their two most productive tight ends from a season ago in Mason Schreck and Matt Weiser. Schreck had 17 catches for 147 yards and two touchdowns last season, while Weiser totaled 154 yards receiving and a touchdown on 13 catches.

Senior Colton Caldwell and redshirt-freshman Glynn Molinich will also add depth at the tight end spot.

True freshman Kevin Rogers from Cincinnati will also challenge for playing time.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line has grown to be one of the strengths of the UB football team and Coach Quinn has the luxury of having essentially all five starters returning. The Bulls did lose first-team All-MACer Jasen Carlson to graduation, but he missed the final six games of the 2013 season with an injury, giving an opportunity for some younger players to develop.

The offensive line is anchored by Andre Davis. The UB senior has been a starter since 2011, starting 37 straight games. He has shown his versatility by playing both guard and tackle over his career. He will likely play the guard spot in 2014.

Tevor Sales has also been a mainstay on the offensive line. A senior, Sales has started every game at center for the Bulls for each of the last two seasons.

Senior Jake Silas started all 13 games at right tackle last season and will likely return to that role this year.

Robert Blodgett and Dillon Guy split time at right guard in 2013 and will compete for the starting job during camp.

After the Bulls lost Carlson in week seven last season, Davis shifted to guard and John Kling started the final six games at left tackle. The junior did a great job and will likely return to the starting role.

Other Bulls who will challenge for playing time on the offensive line are Todd Therrien, Brandon Manosalvas, Jason Bunk, Jessie Back, Albert McCoy, Tyler O'Henly and Dan Collura.

Freshman Matt Murphy enrolled in January and participated in spring practice.

The Bulls will also welcome incoming freshmen Andy Fidler and Skylar Hartley.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

UB will have to replace a pair of starters on the defensive line in Beau Bachtelle and All-MAC defensive end Colby Way. The Bulls do return Kristjan Sokoli who started all 13 games at nose tackle last season. He had 29 tackles, including five for loss and 2.5 sacks.

Dalton Barksdale started one game last season in place of an injured Way and will challenge for a permanent spot on the defensive line in 2014. He had 17 tackles, including two for loss in 13 games last season.

Another player likely to challenge for a starting role is Tedroy Lynch. The senior defensive end transferred to UB last season and had 17 tackles and 2.5 sacks in 11 games.

Sophomore Max Perisse played in 12 games last season and had four tackles.

Playing as a true freshman last season, Brandon Crawford show glimpses of a promising career. The Florida native had seven tackles, two for loss and a forced fumble in eight games.

Kendall Roberson has made the move from linebacker to defensive end and will add depth to the position.

Redshirt-freshmen who will also challenge for time on the defensive line are Chris Ford, Demone Harris, Xavier Davis and Zach Smekal.

CORTNEY LESTER

True freshman Gusty Schwartzmeier and Jake Khoury will join the squad in fall camp.

LINEBACKERS

Job number one of the UB coaching staff will be trying to fined a replacement for Khalil Mack, arguably the greatest football player in school history. Fortunately for the Bulls, this is one area where there is a lot of depth.

Senior Lee Skinner has been a mainstay in UB's linebacker corps throughout his career. He has started all 37 games of his career and has ranked second on the team in tackles in each of his first three seasons. In 2013, Skinner had 79 tackles, 3.5 for loss and an interception.

Jake Stockman will also likely be in the mix for a starting role at the linebacker position. The senior played in all 13 games last season and started three times. He had 43 tackles, 5.5 for loss and an interception in 2013.

Also likely to challenge for a starting linebacker spot is Jarrett Franklin who had some standout moments as a true freshman last season. Franklin appeared in 11 games and had 21 tackles, including three for loss.

Nick Gilbo was having a strong season to start the 2013 campaign before an injury forced him to miss the remaining seven games with an injury. In six games, he had 17 tackles, two for loss and an interception.

Travis Pitzonka has been a standout on special teams and will likely earn an increased role with the linebackers in 2014.

Redshirt-freshmen Greg Lis and Solomon Jackson and sophomore Brandon Tammaro will also challenge for playing time.

The Bulls welcome four freshman linebackers, including Randy Anyanwu, Corey Henderson Myles Nicholas and Will White.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulls will have to replace a pair of experienced starters in the defensive backfield in All-MAC corner Najja Johnson and starting safety Derek Brim. Fortunately, UB has some experience returning.

Adam Redden exploded onto the scene last season as a saftey/outside linebacker. He started 10 games and finished third on the team in tackles with 65, including 12.5 for loss en route to earning All-MAC Third Team honors.

Cortney Lester is entering his fourth season as starter at cornerback. He is coming off a season in which he had 32 tackles, three interceptions and six pass breakups. He has nine career interceptions.

Marqus Baker will challenge for the other starting cornerback job. The junior from Tampa, FL had 16 tackles and an interception last season. Also in the mix for the starting job is senior Dwellie Striggles who had seven tackles and an interception last year.

Witney Sherry was having a solid season in 2012 before an injury sidelined him for the remainder of the year, giving way to Brim who held the job through the 2013 campaign. Don't be surprised to see Sherry back in the starting lineup in 2014.

Okezie Alozie is another UB defensive back that will challenge for the starting safety job. He ranked seventh on the team in tackles with 45 a year ago.

Brandon Berry, Houston Glass, William Rembert and C.J. Stancil all saw some time last season and will challenge for a more significant role in the defensive backfield in 2014.

Andrews Dadeboe, who redshirted as a freshman last season, will add depth in the defensive backfield.

Incoming freshmen Ishmael Hargrove, Zach Nicholas, Brandon Williams, Ryan Williamson and Terrance Wilson will all challenge for playing time.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Bulls return their starting kicker, punter and long snapper. Patrick Clarke returns for his third season as the full-time starting kicker. The senior kicker made 13-of-20 field goal attempts and 45-of-48 extra point attempts last season. He enters the 2014 season ranked third in school history with 29 career field goals.

Tyler Grassman returns for his third year as UB's starting punter. Last season, Grassman had 71 punts for 2,841 yards – a 40-yard average. He had 26 punts downed inside the 20-yard line and seven punts over 50 yards.

Brian Orzechowski adds depth at punter.

Corbin Grassman, cousin of Tyler Grassman, had a solid freshman campaign as the Bulls' long snapper and will likely return to that role in 2014.

True freshman kicker Adam Mitcheson converted 12-of-16 field goal attempts as a senior at Kiski Prep in Pittsburgh.

PATRICK CLARKE

Head Coach Jeff Quinn

Head coach Jeff Quinn continues to mold the Buffalo football program into his vision since being hired on Dec. 22, 2009.

Quinn led the Bulls to an 8-5 record in 2013. The eight wins were the most in the regular season since the Bulls made the move to the FBS in 1999. The Bulls also won a school-record six Mid-American Conference games. The fourth-year head coach led UB to just its second ever bowl game - the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Quinn aided in the develpment of standout linebacker Khalil Mack, who was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year as well as earned the Jack Lambert Award - given to the nation's top linebacker. Mack was the fifth overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

The Bulls went 4-8 (3-5 MAC) in 2012, but it was the way UB ended the season that got fans excited. Buffalo won three of its last four games. The Bulls posted their best numbers in nearly every statistical category since Quinn's arrival. UB rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history and the most as a Division I-A program. On the other side of the ball, the Bulls ranked second in the MAC in total defense.

Quinn led the Bulls to a 3-9 record (2-6 MAC) in 2011 with some record-breaking performances. Running back Branden Oliver set the single-season rushing record with 1,395 yards. He coached a pair of first-team All-MAC selections in Oliver and linebacker Khalil Mack.

The Bulls became more comfortable with Quinn's system in year two and the numbers reflected it. UB averaged eight more points and 68 more yards of total offense per game than in 2010. Buffalo had 13 plays of 40 or more yards in 2011 - the most in its Division I era.

In 2010, the Bulls finished 2-10 in his first season, with a 1-7 mark in MAC play. Despite the record, the Bulls boasted one of their best defenses in their Division I history in 2010 as efensive backs Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook earned All- MAC First Team honors, while linebacker Khalil Mack was named to Phil Steele's 2010 Postseason All-Freshman Team.

Quinn was introduced as the 24th head coach in the history of the University at Buffalo football program by former Director of Athletics Warde Manuel on Dec. 22.

Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons.

As offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cincinnati for the past three seasons, Quinn has helped the Bearcats compile a 33-6 record, including a 12-0 record in 2009 and a national No. 4 ranking heading into the Sugar Bowl meeting with defending national champion Florida.

Quinn was named one of five finalists for the 2009 Broyles Award, which is given to the nation's top assistant coach. Unranked in preseason polls, Cincinnati's undefeated regular season catapulted the Bearcats to No. 3 in the BCS standings and earned them an invitation to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, the school's second consecutive BCS game. UC set numerous school records in 2009, including those for wins (12), road wins (6), consecutive regular season wins (18), points (495), passing yards (3,844), fewest fumbles (10) and fewest turnovers (10).

Behind Quinn's offensive line, the Bearcats have had an individual top the 100-yard plateau in six of the last eight games and eight out of 12 games overall. UC has topped 200-yards rushing on three occasions and has set the school record for points and touchdowns. Offensive tackle Jeff Linkenbach was a midseason selection to the SI.com all-America squad.

UC leads the nation in passing efficiency (166.19) despite using five different quarterbacks through the course of the season. The Bearcats rank sixth in passing offense (320.3), scoring offense (39.8), and total offense (464.3) and 10th in sacks allowed (0.9) behind Quinn's coordination of the offense.

Eleven UC student-athletes were honored as all- BIG EAST selections, including four out of Quinn's five starting offensive linemen. Chris Jurek (1st), Alex Hoffman (2nd), Jason Kelce (2nd), and Linkenbach (2nd) earned all-BIG EAST honors in 2009.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference and its recruiting footprint, Quinn served as associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Central Michigan prior to his stint at Cincinnati and helped lead the Chippewas to the 2006 MAC title. He served as interim head coach for Central Michigan's 31-14 victory over Middle Tennessee in the 2006 Motor City Bowl prior to joining the UC staff.

He arrived at CMU in 2004 after 15 seasons at Grand Valley State. He was part of the staff that led the Lakers to back-to-back national championships in 2002 and 2003. The 2001 Laker offense averaged 600.8 yards and set an NCAA record by averaging 58.4 points per game.

During his career, Quinn has coached 12 offensive linemen who have played in the professional ranks, including first, fourth, fifth, and seventh round NFL Draft choices, as well as 22 players who have earned All-America status. In 2008, Quinn mentored Offensive guard Trevor Canfield, who was an Associated Press Second-Team All- America selection, the first UC offensive lineman to earn a spot on the AP team since Bill Shalosky in 1952.

He is a 1984 graduate of Elmhurst College where he was a two-sport standout in football and wrestling. Quinn was twice named Student-Athlete of the Year at Elmhurst. He was inducted into Elmhurst's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Quinn earned a master of arts degree from De- Pauw in 1986 and an educational leadership master's degree endorsement from GVSU in 2000.

He and his wife Shannon have two sons, Kyle and Ryan. Kyle is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati after serving as the undergraduate student representative to the UC Board of Trustees. He was also awarded the Boren Scholarship and earned the 2104 Presidential Leadership Medal of Excellence. Ryan is a wrestler at Central Michigan.

What They Are Saying About Jeff Quinn

"Buffalo has got an experienced, talented and prepared head football coach in Jeff Quinn. He has been very choosy in his desire to be a head football coach and he felt Buffalo was just a great fit. I wish him the best and expect great things at the University at Buffalo from Jeff Quinn."
-Brian Kelly
Head football coach, Notre Dame

"Jeff Quinn was a pivotal part of the tremendous coaching staff built over the years at the University of Cincinnati, and was an important player in the success enjoyed by the UC Bearcats. It is my hope that same magic follows Jeff to the University at Buffalo."
–SUNY Chancellor Nancy L. Zimpher
President of University of Cincinnati (2003-09)

"We have followed Coach Quinn's Cincinnati offense quite closely here in Indianapolis. They have been up-tempo, exciting, and exceptionally productive. I'm certain UB students, alumni and fans will be very happy with the Bulls' squad Coach Quinn will produce."
–Bill Polian
Former President, Indianapolis Colts

"Jeff Quinn is one the most enthusiastic, passionate football coaches I have ever known. His knowledge of football is second to none and his wide-open brand of football will bring excitement to all UB fans. The other coaches in the MAC will have their hands full preparing for our UB football team."
–Jim McNally
UB Class of '62
Long-time NFL offensive line coach

Alex Wood

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Iowa '79
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Alex Wood begins his fourth season as offensive coordinator, but will make the switch from wide receivers coach to quarterbacks coach in 2014.

In 2013, UB's offense again flourished. For the second straight season, the Bulls rushed and passed for over 2,000 yards (2,176 yards rushing, 2,955 yards passing). The Bulls scored 30 or more points in a school-record eight straight games. Wide Receiver Alex Neutz set the school record with 30 career receiving touchdowns en route to being named All-MAC First Team.

In 2012, UB's offense rushed for 2,120 yards and passed for 2,391 yards. It was the first time in the Division I-A era to rush and pass for over 2,000 yards. In addition, Neutz became just the third receiver in school history with 1,000 receiving yards in a single season.

In his first season as offensive coordinator, the offense saw significant improvement. UB averaged eight more points and 68 more yards of total offense per game than in 2010. Buffalo had 13 plays of 40 or more yards in 2011 - the most in its Division I era.

As wide receiver coach, Wood coached Marcus Rivers to his first All-MAC selection. In addition, Alex Nuetz had the best season of his young career with a team-high 641 receiving yards in only nine games.

Wood brought with him over 30 years of experience at the Division I level and he has also served as a coordinator in the National Football League. He spent the past season as wide receivers coach at Miami University where he helped the RedHawks claim a Mid-American Conference championship a year removed from winning just one game.

His coaching career is highlighted by tremendous success at the highest levels of both college and professional football. From 1989-93 he was part of Dennis Erickson's staff for the Miami Hurricanes, coaching the running backs, while helping the Canes to a pair of National Championships (1989 and 1991) and a perfect 12-0 season in 1991.

Wood has also been a wide receiver coach in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals, a quarterback coach for the Minnesota Vikings and the offensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals.

After serving as offensive coordinator for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94), he was named as the head football coach at James Madison University. Wood led the Dukes to an 8-4 record in his first season including a trip to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In his four-year tenure at JMU, Wood compiled a record of 23-22.

Wood moved into the pro ranks in 1999, when he was hired by Dennis Green as the quarterbacks coach of the Minnesota Vikings. He spent four seasons with the Vikings' organization. In his first year with the team, the Vikings selected Daunte Culpepper in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft. By Culpepper's second season, the young star not only took over the starting quarterback job but earned a start for the National Football Conference (NFC) in the Pro Bowl. He tied for the NFL lead with 33 passing touchdowns and ranked second in the NFC with 3,937 yards. Culpepper led the Vikings to the NFC Central title and a spot in the conference championship game.

In 2001, Culpepper was lost to a season-ending injury but still managed to finish third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.2). The Culpepper-Wood combination was back at it again in 2002. Culpepper spearheaded the NFL's second-ranked offensive unit and in the process the Vikings' quarterback finished second in the NFC in passing yardage (3,853) for the second time in Wood's tenure.

Wood was named wide receivers coach by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2003. In his one year in Cincinnati, Wood coached two players in the top 10 of receiving yards in the AFC (Chad Johnson and Peter Warrick). Johnson led the AFC with 1,355 yards on 90 receptions. He also had 10 touchdown receptions.

In 2004, Wood rejoined Green on the staff of the Arizona Cardinals. Wood served one season as the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals, overseeing the offensive staff and handling play-calling responsibilities.

He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the passing game coordinator at the University of Arkansas and ultimately ended up back in the Midwest helping the RedHawks of Miami become the first team in Division I history to go from one victory to double digit wins.

Wood is a native of Massillon, Ohio, and was a standout football player and wrestler at Washington High School. He and his wife, Rosa, have three children--Jerrel, Alex and Natalie. His son Alex is the defensive coordinator at Wayne (NE) State College.

Lou Tepper

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
Rutgers '67
Third Season at Buffalo

Lou Tepper begins his third season with the Bulls, serving as UB's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Tepper has won over 100 games as a head coach and has served as defensive coordinator at LSU, Illinois and Colorado.

UB's defense continued to dominate in Tepper's second season. In 2013, the Bulls allowed 268 points in the regular season which was the fewest in their Division I-A era. UB also set a Division I-A era record with 38 sacks and set a school record with 90 tackles for loss. Tepper coached All-American linebacker Khalil Mack who finished his career as one of the greatest players in school history. Mack was a first-team All-American, won the Lambert Trophy as the nation's top linebacker and broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles (16) and tied the all-time NCAA mark with 75 career tackles for loss.

On Oct. 12, 2013, Buffalo shutout Western Michigan on the road for just its second shutout of a MAC opponent since joining the conference and first road shutout since 1965.

In his first season with the Bulls, Tepper led the defense to a second place overall ranking in the MAC. UB shattered the school's Division I-A record with 34 sacks on the season. He coached Mack to All-MAC First Team honors.

Tepper, who boasts over 35 years of Division I coaching experience, sports a 101-75-2 overall record as a head coach with stints at Illinois, Edinboro and Indiana (PA). He is particularly well versed in coaching linebackers, as he has tutored three Butkus Award winners – Colorado's Alfred Williams and Illinois' Dana Howard and Kevin Hardy. He also has written a 328-page book entitled Complete Linebacking that was published by Human Kinetics.

Tepper has been a part of staffs that have participated in 10 bowl games, including three as a head coach. At Illinois, he led the Illini to three bowl games, including a win in the 1994 Liberty Bowl. In 2006, the University endowed a "Lou Tepper Football Scholarship" to benefit linebackers for his accomplishments on behalf of his decade of service to Illinois. As head coach from 1991-96, he owns the best Illinois winning percentage (25-31-2) in the past 20 years and had a pair of wins over Ohio State and the first by the Illini at Michigan in 27 years.

After serving as defensive coordinator for three years at LSU (1997-99), Tepper took the head coaching job at Edinboro, where he compiled a 40-26 record, including three Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) titles and two Division II playoff appearances. He was twice named PSAC West Coach of the Year.

He then moved on to Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2006, where he led the Crimson Hawks to a 36-18 record, an NCAA appearance and was named PSAC West Coach of the Year for the third time. His final year at IUP was 2009.

A two-sport athlete in college (football and track and field), Tepper graduated from Rutgers University. He is married to the former Karen Olesewski and they are the parents of two children, Matthew and Stacy.

Adam Shorter

Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator
Cincinnati '04
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Adam Shorter begins his fifth season coaching the offensive linemen. He is also the Bulls' run game coordinator.

In 2013, Shorter continued to develop a strong offensive line. For the second straight season, the Bulls rushed and passed for over 2,000 yards (2,176 yards rushing, 2,955 yards passing). Prior to 2012, the last time a UB team did this was in 1998. Offensive guard Jasen Carlson earned All-MAC First Team honors. Shorter helped coach All-MAC running back Branden Oliver who ran for a school-record 1,421 yards and finished his career with 4,049 rushing yards - also a school record. Oliver became just the 13th player in MAC history to rush for 4,000 yards.

In 2012, Buffalo featured one of its strongest offensive lines in school history. The Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards – the third highest total in school history and the most as a Division I-A program. Buffalo had three players rush for over 500 yards - also a Division I-A era first.

In 2011, as run game coorindator, Shorter helped coach Oliver to a record-breaking season. The sophomore running back rushed for a then school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns.

He served in the same position at Delaware State in 2009.

He spent 2008 at Alcorn State, where he was in charge of the offensive line and tight ends. While with the Braves, Shorter was instrumental in the success of 2008 All-Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) offensive lineman Bronson Carvalho.

Shorter began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the University of Cincinnati (2005-2007). Shorter was a four-year letterman at Cincinnati, where he was the team's starting center. He was the recipient of the John Pease Award as the Bearcats most outstanding offensive lineman as a senior. Shorter appeared in three of Cincinnati's four bowl appearances during his tenure. He earned a bachelor's degree in integrated social studies in secondary education in 2004. He also earned a master's degree in criminal justice from Cincinnati.

Shorter, who serves as UB's equiptment room liaison, acknowledges the contributions to both Mark Dantonio's and Brian Kelly's staff at Cincinnati as the program developed into a perennial top 20 team as his proudest accomplishment of his professional life.

As well as his role in the development of his players character and competitive greatness which he hopes carries through out their lives. . His hobbies are enjoying the outdoors, movies and spending time with family.

Adam and his wife Michelle have two daughters, Audrey and Noelle.

Marty Spieler

Wide Receivers/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Allegheny '04
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Marty Spieler is in his fifth season, but makes the switch from tight ends to wide receivers in 2014. He also serves as special teams coordinator.

In 2013, tight ends combined for 39 receptions. Mason Schreck led the way with 17 receptions, Matt Weiser had 13 and Jimmy Gordon had nine. It was a huge improvement over the previous three seasons when UB tight ends combined for a total of 48 receptions.

In 2012, Gordon had 17 receptions. At the time it was the most by a UB tight end since 2009.

In his first season he coached punt returner Terrell Jackson to an All-MAC First Team selection. Jackson went on to earned All-MAC honorable mention honors in 2011.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Spieler spent three seasons as an assistant at Cincinnati. He worked under coach Quinn handling extensive duties with practice and game plans and spent the spring of 2008 as the tight ends coach.

Prior to Cincinnati, Spieler spent one season as the offensive tackles and tight ends coach at Allegheny College - his alma mater. He also served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern.

He enjoys golf and lists earning his masters degree as the proudest moment of his personal life. The statement he feels reflects his life is "to become a success, fight one more round." He feels that UB offers "the opportunity to promote an atmosphere that our players will succeed academically, athletically and socially."

Marty and his wife, Angela, have a son, Bryce and a daughter, Riley.

Mike Dietzel

Safeties/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Otterbein '85
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Mike Dietzel returns for his fifth season at Buffalo after coaching four All-MAC players in his first two seasons. Safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook as well as punt returner Terrell Jackson earned the first-team All-MAC recognition in 2010 and Jackson was named All-MAC Honorable Mention in 2011.

In 2013, Dietzel coached two of the better safeties in the MAC in Okoye Houston and Derek Brim. Houston (64) and Brim (58) ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, on the team in tackles.

In 2012, Dietzel did a tremendous coaching job when injuries struck. When starter Witney Sherry was lost for the season after seven games, seldom-used Derek Brim stepped in and played like an All-MAC safety.

Dietzel brought 24 years of coaching experience to Buffalo. He spent the previous seven years as a defensive coach at Western Kentucky, including three seasons as the Hilltoppers' defensive coordinator. His efforts helped the Hilltoppers finish 16th in the country in 2006 in pass defense while leading the Gateway Football Conference in that category as well as total defense. He also helped WKU post a 7-5 record in 2007, their first season in Division I-A football.

Dietzel has some familiarity with the MAC as he spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons as defensive coordinator at Kent State, including helping the Golden Flashes to their first winning season in 14 years in 2001.

He also spent seven years at Army, coaching running backs, wide receivers and tight ends during his time there. He was part of the 1996 staff that helped the Cadets go 10-2, the most wins in Army history.

He has also had coaching stints at Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins and Earlham.

A 1985 graduate of Otterbein with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Dietzel lettered four years, starting three, as a defensive back for the Cardinals. The native of Sharon, PA was selected honorable mention All-Ohio Athletic Conference as a senior.

The motto that reflects his life is "quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort and willpower. "

He enjoys fishing and golfing and the proudest moment of his professional life was winning the Commander-in-Chief trophy at Army by defeating Navy in 1996.

He and his wife Jennifer have a son, Taylor.

Matt Simon

Running Backs
Eastern New Mexico '76
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Matt Simon enters his fourth season as running backs coach. Running backs have flourished under Simon's tutelage. Simon coached All-MAC running back Branden Oliver who ran for a school-record 1,535 yards and finished his career with 4,049 rushing yards - also a school record. Oliver became just the 13th player in MAC history to rush for 4,000 yards.

In 2013, the Bulls rushed for 2,176 yards - the third most in school history for a single season. This came on the heels of the 2012 season when UB rushed for 2,120 yards.

In 2012, Oliver was hampered with injuries issues, but still averaged 117 yards in seven games. True freshman Devin Campbell stepped in and rushed for 502 yards on the season, including 160 yards against Ohio.

In 2011, he coached Oliver to a recordbreaking season in only his first season as running backs coach. Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns on the season.

Simon brought a tremendous resume built upon 11 years of coaching in the National Football League and 18 years at the collegiate level, including serving as the head coach at the University of North Texas for three seasons.

Simon began his coaching career at the University of Washington, serving under head coach Don James from 1981-92, a tenure that was highlighted when the Huskies claimed a share of the national championship in 1991. He coached three All-Americans at UW, including running backs Greg Lewis and Napoleon Kaufman.

He would go on to serve as offensive coordinator at New Mexico from 1992-94 where his offenses ranked 18th and 10th nationally in his two seasons. He would then be named head coach at the University of North Texas, where in his first season he would lead the Mean Green to the Southland Conference title and earn Conference and AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

After interning for one season with the Denver Broncos in 1998, Simon was named running backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, where he contributed to tremendous success by the franchise, including helping the Ravens earn a Super Bowl title in 2000. He also helped lead Baltimore to playoff berths in 2001 and 2003, when the Ravens claimed their first AFC North title. With Baltimore he would coach Pro Bowler Jamal Lewis, who in 2003 under Simon's tutelage, would post the second-highest rushing total in NFL history when he rushed for 2,066 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

His success with running backs would continue when he spent the 2007-08 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. There he would help LaDainian Tomlinson to his second NFL rushing title, while fumbling just once, and also tutored Pro Bowl fullback Lorenzo Neal and Darren Sproles, who would earn a Pro Bowl alternate invite as a return specialist.

He has spent the past two years as a professional football consultant and head coach at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills, OH. He has worked with several players to prepare them for the Senior Bowl, NFL combine and NFL draft, including Detroit Lions 2010 first-round selection Jahvid Best.

Chris Cosh

Defensive Line
Virginia Tech '83
First Season at Buffalo

Chris Cosh brings with him nearly 30 years of experience, most recently serving as defensive coordinator at USF. He has served as a defensive coordinator for 16 of his 29 seasons, including stops at Kansas State, Maryland, South Carolina, Michigan State and Illinois. He was on Lou Tepper's staff at Illinois from 1992-96, including serving as defensive coordinator in 1996.

Cosh served as defensive coordinator at USF in 2012. In his one season with the Bulls, he coached defensive tackle Cory Grissom and linebacker Sam Barrington to All-Big East honors.

Prior to USF, Cosh coached for the second time at Kansas State and helped rebuild the Wildcats under Bill Snyder, culminating in a Cotton Bowl appearances after the 2011 season. The Wildcats improved drastically in 2011, cutting almost 100 yards per game off their rushing defense to rank 37th nationally. K-State gave up less than 400 yards per game and under 28 points despite playing in a league that had six of the nation's top 13 offenses. Cosh's defense produced three All-Big 12 performers last year, including linebacker Arthur Brown. In 2010, Cosh helped direct a Wildcat defense that saw a true freshman earn All-Big 12 honors for the first time on a Snyder-coached team when safety Ty Zimmerman had a breakout rookie season. Zimmerman was named to numerous Freshman All-America teams and received votes for the Big 12 Freshman of the Year award after recording 74 tackles, three interceptions, three pass breakups and two fumble recoveries.

In 2009 under Cosh, K-State's defense made tremendous strides from 2008 as K-State improved from 117th nationally in total defense in 2008 to No. 39 in 2009. The 2009 Wildcat defense yielded just 105.4 yards per game on the ground, which ranked 16th nationally, and surrendered 339.9 total yards per contest. Led by All-Big 12 selections Tysyn Hartman and Jeffrey Fitzgerald, the Wildcats finished in the top half of the Big 12 rankings in rushing defense, total defense and turnover margin.

As defensive coordinator at Maryland, the Terrapins (7-5) ended the 2008 regular season 35th nationally in scoring defense (21.4 ppg) and were led by All-ACC performers Alex Wujciak at linebacker and Jeremy Navarre on the defensive line.

In 2007, the Terrapin defense was highlighted by first-team All-ACC performers Erin Henderson and Dre Moore. Henderson led the league in tackles from his weakside linebacker spot, while Moore, a defensive tackle, went on to become a fourth-round draft choice of Tampa Bay in the 2008 NFL Draft.. Cosh's defense ended the year at No. 24 nationally in scoring defense (21.5 ppg) and No. 33 in pass defense (210.69 ypg). The group posted eight more sacks and five more interceptions than the previous year.

In 2006, Cosh was responsible for a unit that contributed to the school's first nine-win season in three years, and finished the year with a 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps defense held the opposition to an average of 21.8 points per game. Under Cosh's leadership, the defense marked breakout performances by cornerback Josh Wilson and Henderson, who each earned All-ACC honors. Wilson went on to become a second-round choice of the Seattle Seahawks in the 2007 NFL Draft, while DL Conrad Boston (Minnesota Vikings) and LB David Holloway (Arizona Cardinals) signed free-agent contracts.

Prior to his stint at Maryland, Cosh spent the 2004-05 seasons under Snyder as linebackers coach at Kansas State. The Wildcat defense ranked 30th nationally in 2005 allowing an average of 128.9 rushing yards per game. Junior linebacker Brandon Archer was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection in 2005, an accolade which came a year after Cosh helped coach the newcomer to second-team honors in his first year as a starter.

In the five years prior to his first stop in Manhattan, Cosh served under Lou Holtz as linebackers coach (1999-2002) and defensive coordinator (2003) at South Carolina.

In his tenure at USC, he helped produce some of the Southeastern Conference's top linebackers with Kalimba Edwards (two-time first team all-league, Butkus and Lombardi Awards finalist in 2001) among them. His resume as a position coach also includes tutoring New York Jets first-round pick and Pro Bowler John Abraham (1999) and freshman All-American Lance Laury (2002). During his time in Columbia, S.C., the Gamecocks won back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history.

In addition to serving under coaching legends Snyder and Holtz, Cosh was the defensive coordinator at Michigan State under former Miami Dolphins and current Alabama head coach Nick Saban. In his lone season (1998) in East Lansing, Mich., the Spartans upset No. 1 Ohio State and knocked off Notre Dame. Cosh's unit helped spark those wins with the 10th-ranked pass defense in the nation.

During his first tour of duty at Maryland in 1997, Cosh coached the linebackers while also heading up the team's recruiting efforts. In that one year with the Terps, linebackers Eric Barton and Kendal Ogle finished second and third in the ACC in tackles.

The greatest testament to his skill as a coach of linebackers may have come at Illinois (defensive coordinator from 1992-96) when he led Dana Howard (1994) and Kevin Hardy (1995) to consecutive Butkus Awards. Howard posted a Big Ten record in tackles in 1994. He also oversaw a defense which saw DE Simeon Rice earn consensus All-America honors before being drafted by the Arizona Cardinals. Fellow LB John Holecek also went on to a career in the NFL.

A former linebacker who earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Virginia Tech in 1983, Cosh got his start coaching in Blacksburg, Va., where he was a student assistant during the 1983 season. He then made five different stops (Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Southeast Missouri State, UNLV and two tours at Minnesota) before settling in at Illinois. In all but one of those full-time jobs, he worked either as defensive coordinator or linebackers coach.

Cosh and his wife, Mary, have two sons, J.J., who played football at the United States Naval Academy, and Billy, a quarterback at James Madison.

Eric Lewis

Secondary
San Diego State '98
First Season at Buffalo

Eric Lewis begins his first season as secondary coach. Son of longtime NFL coach Sherman Lewis, Lewis was most recently the defensive coordinator at Weber State. He brings with him extensive coaching experience at nearly every level.

Lewis spent the past two seasons at Weber State, the latter as Defensive Coordinator. The Wildcats led the Big Sky Conference in pass defense.

He is no stranger to the Mid-American Conference as he was the defensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan during the 2009 season. In his one season in Ypsilanti, the Eagles led the nation in pass defense. He also spent three seasons (2003-05) as safeties coach at Ball State. Lewis spent the 2008 season as an assistant at the University of Louisville where he coached the cornerbacks.

Prior to Louisville, he spent two seasons as a defensive quality coach for the Green Bay Packers of the NFL where he assisted cornerbacks coach Lionel Washington and secondary coach Kurt Schottenheimer. His duties included breaking down opponent game film as well as organizing the playbook and installation.

Lewis began his coaching career at St. Augustine High School in San Diego where he was the wide receivers coach. He then moved to Michigan State where he was a defensive graduate assistant coach, primarily assisting with the defensive backs. From there he spent one season at Bucknell.

A native of East Lansing, MI, Lewis played football at San Diego State where he graduated in 1998. He was a four-year starter with the Aztecs and earned All-WAC second team honors as a senior. He is his San Diego State's all-time leader in career pass breakups. He graduated with a degree in finance and business administration.

Lewis likes coaching at UB because it "offers our student-athletes an opportunity to attend a world class Univeristy and continually compete for MAC Championships."

Lewis and his wife Sara are the parents of two children, Taylor and Harper.

Keegan Jones

Tight Ends
Monmouth (IL) '10
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Keegan Jones has been promoted to tight ends coach after spending the last three seasons as a graduate assistant.

As a graduate assistant for the Bulls, Jones assisted the offensive staff. He worked with an offense that rushed and passed for over 2,000 yards in both 2012 and 2013.

Jones is a 2010 graduate of Monmouth College where he was a four-year letterwinner playing quarterback for the Fighting Scots. While at Monmouth, Jones spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's basketball team and one year as an assistant coach for the women's basketball team.

LB • 6-2 • 223 • ROCHESTER, NY/IRONDEQUOIT

Myles Nicholas will make the short trip down Route 90 to start his college career, coming from Irondequoit High School in Rochester, NY. He was named to the All-Greater Rochester team, and was All-State. A three-year starter on varsity, he was a captain as a senior and had seven sacks as a linebacker for Irondequoit. Along with football, he also was a member of the wrestling and track teams while in high school.

ZACH NICHOLAS
SS • 6-0 • 194 • ELLICOTT CITY, MD/MOUNT HEBRON

Zach Nicholas is a multi-purpose athlete who is projected to be a safety with the Bulls. While playing for head coach Phil Zacharias at Mount Hebron, he was an All-State safety with 61 tackles, two interceptions, five pass breakups, and four fumble recoveries – three of which were returned for touchdowns. He was an accomplished running back as well, rushing for 310 yards in a single game and averaging 6.2 yards per carry with 20 catches. Nicholas was also the team's return specialist, returning punts and kicks and has been recorded with a 4.5 40-yard dash. Zach made the Top 33 All-Star team in Maryland, and was named the Howard County Defensive Player of the Year.

JAMES O'HAGAN
OL • 6-2 • 293 • SEAFORD, NY/SEAFORD SENIOR

James O'Hagan has the pedigree Coach Quinn and his staff loves in a lineman, coming from Seaford High School where he was the number one heavyweight wrestler in the state and one of the top 20 heavyweights in the nation. Along with his career on the mat, he was a four-year starter on both the offensive and defensive lines for head coach Rob Perpall, making the first team All-Metro and All-State squads. As a senior on the defensive line, he recorded 112 tackles and 12 sacks.

KEVIN ROGERS
TE • 6-3 • 224 • CINCINNATI, OH/ANDERSON

Kevin Rogers will go from throwing passes to catching them while at UB, coming from a career as a dual-threat quarterback for coach Jeff Giesting at Anderson High School in Cincinnati. He was a two-time All-Conference selection as a quarterback, throwing for 2,400 yards and 21 touchdowns in his career while rushing for 1,500 yards and 14 more scores. Rogers was captain of both his high school football and basketball teams.

GUSTY SCHWARTZMEIER
DL • 6-4 • 280 • HILTON, NY/HILTON

Gusty Schwartzmeier joins Myles Nicholas as top Section V talent who chose to stay close to home for their college careers. Schwartzmeier already looms large at 6-foot-4, 280 pounds, and will play on the defensive line at Buffalo. He is an All-County and All-State member, and was named MVP of the NY National Underclassman Combine.

WILL WHITE
LB • 5-11 • 228 • DETROIT, MI/CASS TECHNICAL

Will White is a linebacker from Detroit, MI, who was a standout at Cass Technical High School under head coach Thomas Wilcher. He will join former Cass Tech alum Dalton Barksdale, Brandon Berry and William Rembert on the 2014 roster. White was a three-year starter, leading the team to a pair of Michigan Division I state titles. A team captain in his senior season, he recorded 128 tackles, eight sacks and 24 tackles for loss and was named to the All-Metro, All-City and All-State in recognition of his terrific final season.

BRANDON WILLIAMS
CB • 5-10 • 163 • LOVEJOY, GA/ LOVEJOY

Brandon Williams is a multi-sport athlete who will come to Buffalo as a cornerback from Lovejoy, GA. While playing for head coach Al Hughes at Lovejoy High School, he made the 6A Georgia Second Team as a defensive back after a senior season where he recorded 70 tackles, 16 pass breakups, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. He was also a standout track athlete, competing in the 4x100 and 4x400 relays, long jump, triple jump, pole vault and 300-meter hurdles. He ran a state-qualifying time of 38.9 in the 300-meter hurdles, and his 4x100 relay team finished 12th overall in the state.

RYAN WILLIAMSON
FS • 6-0 • 174 • CINCINNATI, OH/COLERAIN

Ryan Williamson is a safety who comes to Buffalo from powerhouse Colerain High School in Cincinnati, OH. Under head coach Tom Bolden, he led the conference with five interceptions as both a junior and senior, earning him All-Conference and All-Southwest Ohio honors. His secondary pedigree comes from his father John, who played cornerback at Cincinnati. Also an accomplished track athlete, Ryan has a 6'4 high jump and a 21' long jump under his belt.

TERRANCE WILSON
CB • 5-9 • 179 • BUFORD, GA/BUFORD

Terrance Wilson is a cornerback from Buford High School in Suwanee, GA, under coach Jess Simpson. Coming from a talented football family – his twin brother Thomas signed with Missouri today – Terrance won two straight 3A state championships as a junior and senior, and was named All-County honorable mention. He averaged 41.5 tackles, 8.5 pass breakups and 1.5 interceptions over those final two championship seasons.

J.R. ZAZZARA
QB • 6-2 • 192 • FAYETTEVILLE, NY/CHRISTIAN BROTHERS ACADEMY

J.R. Zazzara is an accomplished quarterback from traditional central New York power Christian Brothers Academy, where he played for head coach Joe Casamento. He was named "Mr. Football" for the region and recently earned MVP honors at the All-American Bowl down in Orlando, FL on Jan. 3. He led CBA to back-to-back Section III titles and a number two ranking in the state as a senior. He accounted for 38 touchdowns this past season, both with his arm (1,750 yards and 22 touchdowns) and with his dynamic running ability (rushing 55 times for 805 yards and 16 touchdowns). Zazzara turned down a lacrosse scholarship from Syracuse, opting instead to follow his dream of becoming a Division I football player.

#2 OHIO STATE 40, BUFFALO 20

AUG. 31, 2013 • OHIO STADIUM • COLUMBUS, OH

Playing in front of 103,980 fans at the famed Horseshoe, the University at Buffalo football team put more than a scare in the second-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes, losing 40-20, on Saturday afternoon. After falling behind, 23-0 in the first quarter, the Bulls outscored the Buckeyes, 20-17, the rest of the way.

Playing on ESPN2, the nation got their first look at the 2013 version of Khalil Mack and the senior linebacker didn't disappoint. Mack finished with nine tackles, 2.5 sacks and returned an interception 45 yards for a touchdown. He led a UB defense that had nine tackles for loss and four sacks on the afternoon.

Joe Licata looked comfortable under center for the Bulls. The sophomore quarterback finished 19-for-32 for 185 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Licata found Matt Weiser on a crossing pattern from 16 yards out for the Bulls first score to make the score 23-7. It was the sophomore tight ends first career touchdown.

On the ensuing possession, Mack took matters into his own hands as the standout linebacker intercepted the Braxton Miller pass and raced 45 yards to the endzone for his first career touchdown. The two-point conversion failed and the Bulls trailed 23-13 with 7:10 left in the half.

Ohio State responded with a touchdown and took a 30-13 lead into the locker room at halftime.

After forcing an Ohio State three-and-out on its first possession of the second half, UB methodically marched the ball 62 yards on seven plays and Licata hooked up with Alex Neutz on a 10 yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 30-20 with 10:21 left in the third quarter. Neutz finished with nine catches for 98 yards and a touchdown in the game.

On the Buckeyes' next possession, the Bulls defense was on the attack again. Mack and the defense swarmed Miller and forced him to fumble. The Bulls recovered on the Ohio State one-yard line, but an illegal hands to the face penalty on UB negated the play. Ohio State responded by driving 91 yards for a touchdown. The Buckeyes added a field goal with 7:05 left to make the final margin 40-20.

"I give credit to Ohio State. They came out and put us down 23-0," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "What I was pleased with was the way our kids responded once they settled down. They were able to outscore them in the second, third and fourth quarter. I was really proud of the way our kids came out. They are a very gritty bunch. We talked about being a complete and finishing football team and they handled the conditions extremely well."

Ohio State did a good job containing UB's run game as Branden Oliver was held to 73 yards on 26 carries. Ohio State running back Jordan Hall 159 yards rushing, including a pair of long touchdown runs.

Redshirt freshman tight end and Medina, OH native Mason Schreck,playing in his first career game, had four catches for 22 yards. Weiser and Devin Campbell, also an Ohio native, had a pair of catches each.

Defensively, Blake Bean had eight tackles and a forced fumble. Derek Brim had seven solo stops and Colby Way finished with seven tackles, including a pair of tackles for loss.`

#23 BAYLOR 70, BUFFALO 13

SEP. 7, 2013 • FLOYD CASET STADIUM • WACO, TX

Alex Neutz had six catches for a career-best 197 yards and a touchdown in a 70-13 loss at #23 Baylor on Saturday afternoon. However, the only thing hotter than the 120-degree temperature on the field, might have been the Baylor offense. The Bears rolled up 781 yards of total offense which featured lightning-quick scoring drives. Baylor had nine touchdown drives of less than two minutes each.

The Bulls got off to a great start. On the first play of the game, a flea flicker resulted in a 54-yard hookup between Joe Licata and Alex Neutz. Seven plays later, Branden Oliver ran up the middle for a one-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead.

However, the lead was short lived as the Bears struck quickly the first three times they touched the ball to take a 21-7 lead. Buffalo did respond with a four-play 60-yard scoring drive, capped by a Licata to Neutz 14-yard touchdown pass. After the extra point was blocked, UB trailed 21-13 with 2:11 left in the first half.

But it was all Baylor after that. The Bears scored the next five times they touched the ball and added a fumble return for a touchdown to take a 56-13 lead at the half.

Neutz's 197 yards receiving was the third best single game effort in school history. He finished 21 yards shy of the school record of 218 set by Joe D'Amico against Cortland in 1981. The only other UB player to have a better receiving day in UB's Division I-A era was Andre Forde who had 202 receiving yards against Ohio in 2002.

Baylor made an effort to run the majority of its plays away from Khalil Mack, who was coming off being named the National Defensive Player of the Week after his standout performance against Ohio State. The senior linebacker finished with just four tackles in the game.

Tomarris Bell had a career-high seven tackles to lead the Bulls. Okoye Houston, Nick Gilbo and Witney Sherry each finished with five stops. Jake Stockman had a pair of tackles for loss, including a sack in game.

Licata played just the first half and went 10-of-16 for 214 yards a touchdown and an interception. Anthone Taylor was the Bulls top rusher with 39 yards on the ground.

Lache Seastrunk rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns and Bryce Petty finished 13-of-16 for 338 yards and threw for two scores to lead Baylor.

"We learned a lot from these first two weeks. We went after the best in the country and we wanted to see how we measured up against them," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "Last week I felt better. This week we didn't come close to feeling the way I thought we could hold up against Baylor. They are deserving to be one of the top five teams in my opinion right now."

BUFFALO 26, STONY BROOK 23 (5OT)

SEP. 14, 2013 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

It took five overtimes, but the University at Buffalo football team beat Stony Brook, 26-23, in the team's home opener at UB Stadium on Saturday. Anthone Taylor rushed for a career-best 118 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winner in the fifth overtime to help the Bulls to their first win of the season.

Playing in front of a paid attendance of 24,013, the third largest crowd in UB Stadium history, fans were treated to the longest game in school history. The five-overtime contest topped the previous four-overtime win at Akron in 2008.

The Bulls capitalized on Stony Brook turnovers for both of their scores in regulation. Najja Johnson made an acrobatic interception in the first quarter that UB was able to convert into a Patrick Clarke field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 2:12 left in the first quarter. The score remained 3-0 at halftime.

Devin Campbell pounced on a muffed punt return at the Stony Brook 27-yard line for the Bulls second forced turnover of the game. Three plays later, Taylor forced his way into the endzone from 1-yard out to give the Bulls a 10-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third quarter.

The score remained 10-0 entering the fourth quarter. Stony Brook converted a field goal early in the final stanza to cut the lead to 10-3. The score remained 10-3 until late in the game. On Stony Brook's final drive of regulation it drove 80 yards on 15 plays and scored the game-tying touchdown with just 29 seconds left.

Stony Brook struck first in overtime with a 37-yard field goal. Clarke responded with a clutch 42-yarder to send the game to a second overtime.

The Bulls got the ball first in the second overtime and Joe Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a three-yard strike to put the Bulls ahead, 20-13. However, Stony Brook's Lyle Negron hit Malcolm Eugene with a 10-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 20 and send it to a third overtime.

In the third overtime it looked like the Bulls were going to sew up the victory. Dwellie Striggles came up with the first interception of his career and the Bulls had the ball with a chance to win the game. However, with the Bulls on the Stony Brook 13, a botched exchange by Licata and Taylor put the ball on the turf and it was scooped up by the Seawolves. The game headed to a fourth overtime.

The next time the Bulls had the ball, Licata threw an interception and it was Stony Brook's chance to win it. But the Seawolves missed a 37-yard field goal that would have won the game. To the fifth overtime they went.

Stony Brook made a 25-yard field goal to take a 23-20 lead in the fifth OT. After Licata connected with Alex Dennison on a 19-yard pass play, Taylor ended it with a 6-yard scamper off left tackle.

"It wasn't pretty, it wasn't perfect, but it was complete," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "That was a good football team that we faced today, we knew that going in, but there is nothing more important than our kids coming out with a win to give them some confidence. They have been through a lot in the last two weeks and the coaches knew that this was going to be a challenging day but I was proud about how our guys hung in there and fought until the bitter end. Our coaches did a great job keeping their poise and composure on the sidelines and I really think that helped calm our team down."

The Bulls wanted to establish the pass early as Licata completed 19-of-30 passes in the first half. The Bulls were a more run-oriented offense in the second half and the sophomore signal-caller finished 27-of-48 for 193 yards, a touchdown and an interception.

Neutz tied a career high with 10 catches in the game. He now has a receiving touchdown in three straight games. Fred Lee had a career-best seven catches for 61 yards.

It was Taylor's first career 100-yard game and the first by a Bull this season. In fact the 118 yards today easily eclipsed the 67 career yards he had on 26 carries coming into the game.

The Bulls had a number of players step up on defense. Adam Redden had a career-high 17 tackles – the most by a UB player since Davonte Shannon had 20 against Army in 2008. Okoye Houston was also making plays all over the field. The senior safety had a career-best 14 tackles, including a couple bone-jarring hits.

BUFFALO 41, CONNECTICUT 12

SEP. 28, 2013 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The University at Buffalo football team dominated the visiting Connecticut Huskies in every facet of the game in a 41-12 victory at a sun-drenched UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. A second straight 20,000+ crowd witnessed the Bulls offense score a season-high 41 points and a UB defense force four turnovers.

"It's a program builder," head coach Jeff Quinn said of his team's win. "In all three phases it was a complete performance. I was really impressed with our front seven defensively to put pressure on their quarterback. Our kids fed off it, and without a doubt every single player on that field was ready to go out there and prove that they could beat a very good football team in UConn."

Today's win was just the second over a BCS automatic qualifying program in school history and the first since the Bulls defeated Rutgers in 2002.

The defense held the Huskies to 220 total yards and set the tone early when, on the third play of the game, Adam Redden stripped UConn quarterback Chandler Whitmer of the ball and recovered it himself at the Huskies' 8-yard line. Five plays later, Joe Licata found Mason Schreck in the endzone for a 5-yard touchdown pass and the Bulls quickly led 7-0. It was Schreck's first career touchdown.

After UConn answered with a field goal to cut the lead to 7-3, the defense struck again as Najja Johnson intercepted a pass and raced 33 yards to the endzone for his first career touchdown and the Bulls led 14-3 after the first quarter.

Licata hooked up with Alex Neutz on a 54-yard connection to set up the offense for another score. Branden Oliver capitalized when he plowed his way into the endzone on a 5-yard run to put the Bulls ahead, 21-6.

Up 21-6, it was time for the special teams to get in on the act. Colby Way blocked a UConn field goal attempt and Johnson scooped it up and returned it to the Connecticut 36-yard line. Six plays later, Licata connected with Neutz from 22 yards out to extend the UB lead to 28-6.

The Huskies got a touchdown late in the half to cut the UB advantage to 28-12 at the break.

Buffalo's defense completely dominated UConn in the second half, holding the Huskies to just 27 yards of total offense and two first downs.

UB kicker Patrick Clarke provided all of the scoring in the second half as he drilled a 49-yard field goal and a career-long 50-yard field goal on consecutive possessions to extend the Bulls lead to 34-12.

The cherry on top came when Licata hit Fred Lee in stride on a 36-yard passing play early in the fourth quarter to give the Bulls a 41-12 edge.

Redden followed up his standout performance against Stony Brook with another great game. The senior safety/linebacker had 2.5 tackles for loss, a pair of sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. As a team, the Bulls had nine tackles for loss and a season-high five sacks. Beau Bachtelle had one of the most productive games of his career with five tackles and two sacks. Khalil Mack had eight tackles, including 1.5 for loss in the game. Lee Skinner had a team high 10 tackles for the Bulls.

Along with Johnson, the Bulls also got interceptions from Cortney Lester and Nick Gilbo.

Oliver was back in the lineup for the Bulls and had 90 yards on 23 carries and a touchdown. Licata finished 10-of-19 for 177 yards and a career-best three touchdowns. Lee was a Licata's favorite target as he finished with three catches for 51 yards.

One of UB's many unsung heroes on Saturday was Tyler Grassman. The Bulls' punter took over kickoff duties and drilled six touchbacks.

"I was very proud of the way those kids handled themselves," Quinn said. "Now what we have to do is learn from it, build, and continue to grow and get better. I think we're in a good place right now and our players are really excited about where they're at."

BUFFALO 42, EASTERN MICHIGAN 14

OCT. 5, 2013 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

For the second straight week, the University at Buffalo football team cruised to a victory – defeating Eastern Michigan, 42-14, in its Mid-American Conference opener at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. A homecoming crowd of 23,602 witnessed the Bulls improve to 3-2 and extend their home winning streak to five – their longest since the 1983 season.

"The effort was excellent today in all three phases," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "Our coaching staff did a tremendous job in preparation. To beat this team was just another important step for us to accomplish the goals that we set for ourselves this season."

Branden Oliver rushed for a season-high 150 yards and two touchdowns. The senior running back set the tone early when, on the Bulls' sixth offensive play, he broke off a 60-yard touchdown run to give UB a 7-0 lead. It was Oliver's 13th career 100-yard game – tying the school record held by Anthony Swan (1994-97).

After the teams traded punts, Jake Stockman forced the game's first turnover. The junior linebacker forced and recovered a fumble at the EMU 18-yard line. Oliver scored his second touchdown of the game on a 2-yard plunge to give UB a 14-0 lead late in the first quarter.

The next time the Eagles had possession of the ball, Cortney Lester abruptly brought an end to a scoring drive when he intercepted a pass at the UB 1-yard line. The Bulls capitalized by marching 99 yards on 14 plays and capped it off with a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Joe Licata to give UB a 21-0 lead.

Eastern Michigan responded with a touchdown drive to cut the lead to 21-7. But the good feelings on the Eagles sideline were short-lived as Devin Campbell returned the ensuing kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown. It was the first kick return for a touchdown by a UB player since Ernest Jackson returned a kick 97 yards against Missouri in 2008.

Buffalo led 28-7 at the half.

The Bulls added a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter to extend the lead. Campbell had a one-yard touchdown run and Licata connected on a 27-yard touchdown pass with Alex Neutz.

Neutz finished with five catches for 104 yards. It was his ninth career 100-yard receiving game. The Grand Island, NY native now has a touchdown catch in all five games this season and 24 for his career – four shy of the school record held by Naaman Roosevelt.

Licata finished 15-for-22 for 224 yards and a touchdown. Six different UB receivers had receptions in the game. Oliver and Campbell had three apiece.

Blake Bean led the defensive effort with seven tackles, including a tackle for loss. Stockman and Adam Redden each chipped in with five tackles. Witney Sherry added his first career interception in the game.

"Another tremendous effort by our front seven," Quinn said. "We knew Eastern Michigan was going to come in and run the ball and move the chains, but I thought we did a tremendous job of playing gap-sound defense and disengaging from blocks and making plays."

BUFFALO 33, WESTERN MICHIGAN 0

OCT. 12, 2013 • WALDO STADIUM • KALAMAZOO, MI

The University at Buffalo football team won its fourth straight game in convincing fashion, shutting out Western Michigan, 33-0, at Waldo Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was just the second time the Bulls blanked a Mid-American Conference opponent and it was first road shutout by a UB team since 1965. Buffalo improved to 4-2 overall and to 2-0 in MAC play for the first time ever.

The UB defense completely dominated the game. The Bulls held the Broncos to just 202 yards of total offense, including only 38 yards rushing. Colby Way led the defensive attack with a career-high three sacks. The defense forced four turnovers, including interceptions by Najja Johnson and Marqus Baker. Khalil Mack finished with six tackles, 1.5 for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

"Well, as always, you know when you go on the road in this league, you really depend heavily on your leadership, and I thought our leadership did a great job today defensively, outstanding performance," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "To get a shut out on the road against a very good football team, says a lot about our leadership, and the takeaways in the second half obviously made a difference. Not really the best or well executed first half that I would have liked to see, but I just thought our kids did a good job, our coaches did in the half and coming out in the second half and getting some takeaways, capitalizing on them. I thought our defense was tremendous. Colby Way, Khalil Mack, Redden, Lee Skinner, all those guys, I mean, Beau Bachtelle, tremendous group of young men."

Offensively, the Bulls rushed for a season-high 290 yards in the game. Branden Oliver ran for 128 yards on 19 carries for his school-record 14th career 100-yard game. Potts chipped in with the best game of his young career, finishing with 91 yards on 16 carries.

Despite the lopsided score, it was a close game throughout the first half. The Bulls marched right down the field on their opening possession and Devin Campbell punched it in from 1-yard out. Patrick Clarke's extra point was blocked and the Bulls led 6-0. However, the UB offense stalled on several occasion in the first half and the score would remain 6-0 at the half.

The Bulls scored 17 points in the third quarter to break the game open. Clarke started the second-half scoring with a career-long 51-yard field goal that really seemed to ignite UB. Mack forced a fumble that Adam Redden recovered on the Broncos ensuing possession. Buffalo capitalized as Joe Licata connected with Mason Schreck on a 2-yard touchdown to extend the UB lead to 16-0 just over six minutes into the third quarter.

Following a three-and-out by Western Michigan, the UB offense went right back to work and marched 53 yards on five plays. Licata found Free Lee along the sideline and the senior receiver tip-toed into the endzone to put the Bulls ahead, 23-0.

Licata tossed his third touchdown of the game early in the fourth quarter when he found Alex Neutz in the corner of the endzone from two yards out. It was Neutz's sixth touchdown grab of the season. The senior receiver now has a touchdown catch in all six games this year.

Clarke capped the scoring with a 36-yard field goal with 6:27 left in the game.

After a rocky first half, Licata settled down in the second half. The sophomore signal caller was 5-for-8 for 44 yards and three touchdowns in the second half and finished with 124 total passing yards in the game.

Seven different players had catches in the game. Lee had a team-high four catches for 88 yards and a touchdown in the game.

This was just the second time UB shut out a MAC foe. The other was a 44-0 win over Ohio in 2001. The last shutout on the road was a 22-0 win at Delaware in 1965. It was the first time a Western Michigan team was shutout at home since 1987.

BUFFALO 32, MASSACHUSETTS 3

OCT. 19, 2013 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

Branden Oliver rushed for a season-high 216 yards and broke the school record for career rushing yards to help the University at Buffalo football team to a 32-3 win over Massachusetts at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Oliver has now rushed for 3,203 yards, surpassing James Starks' previous mark of 3,140.

Although the day belonged to Oliver, it was UB's defense that put on another dominant display. The Bulls held the Minutemen to 85 yards rushing, had three sacks, 11 tackles for loss and forced three turnovers, including a Khalil Mack interception return for a touchdown for the game's first touchdown.

Mack finished the day with a sack, two tackles for loss and an interception. His sack was the 24th of his career, tying him with Rich Dadabo (1989-92) and Vince Canosa (1992-95) for the school record for career sacks. The senior linebacker intercepted a pass and did his best impression of Oliver, dodging defenders and racing 35 yards to the endzone for the game's first touchdown. It was his second pick six of the season.

Fellow linebackers Adam Redden and Lee Skinner also had standout games. Redden finished with 12 tackles, a half sack, two tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup. Skinner had a season-high 11 tackles, including 1.5 for loss.

"Tonight, it was a complete victory and a necessary step to take as we continue to strive to accomplish the goals we set forth for our program," Head Coach Jeff Quinn said. "Congratulations to Branden Oliver. To break James Starks' all-time (rushing) record is very significant to our program because we know what a talented player James was and what he meant to this program. The guy that sparked us tonight was Khalil Mack. It was a great job by Lou (Tepper) putting him in the right place and coming up big with that interception. It was a great lift and a spark for this team."

Patrick Clarke made field goals of 44, 36 and 27 yards to help extend the Buffalo lead to 16-3 early in the third quarter. It was another special teams play that sparked the Bulls for their next points as well. Tyler Grassman hit a beautiful punt that was downed at the UMass 1-yard line. On the very next play, Redden and Okoye Houston converged on UMass running back Jamal Wilson in the endzone for a safety.

The offense got in the act in the fourth quarter. Joe Licata found Fred Lee on a 7-yard touchdown strike to give the Bulls a 25-3 lead. Oliver capped the scoring with a 5-yard touchdown run to make the score 32-3.

Lee finished with a career-high eight catches for 70 yards. Licata went 18-for-27 for 167 yards and a touchdown.

Oliver was a workhorse for the Bulls. The senior running back set a school record with 43 carries in the game. His 216-yard performance was his third career 200-yard game.

"It was a battle – we knew the team that was less affected by the external factors would come off that field victorious and I thought our kids really responded and stayed in the game," Quinn said. "It was a solid effort and a great feeling for me and the staff to come out this evening with a victory."

BUFFALO 41, KENT STATE 21

OCT. 26, 2013 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

Led by a career-high four touchdown runs from senior tailback Branden Oliver, the University at Buffalo football team won its sixth straight game, defeating Kent State, 41-21, at Dix Stadium on Saturday. The win improved the Bulls to 6-2, making them bowl eligible for just the second time as a FBS program.

"This is probably the most exciting time to be a UB Bull," said head coach Jeff Quinn. "I couldn't be more proud of how this football team has responded. We challenged them all week; we know we had to come on the road against a very good Kent State team. Give Kent State a lot of credit, they played hard, they have a lot of good football players, but our guys weren't going to be denied today. We knew the challenge and to be able to do it on the road against the defending MAC East champions say a lot about our football team."

Oliver continued his tear in conference action on Saturday afternoon as he finished the game with 185 rushing yards and scored four straight UB touchdowns. With his 100-yard effort, Oliver has now rushed for over 100 yards on the ground in all four conference games and now has a school record 16 games breaking the 100 yard plateau. The four touchdown runs are a Division I-A record and the most by a Buffalo player since Anthony Swan in 1996.

It was a record day for a number of UB Bulls, including linebacker Khalil Mack, who was credited with his school-record 25th career sack as he forced Kent State into an intentional grounding in the third quarter. The sack was also Mack's 67th career tackle for loss.

Not to be outdone by the senior duo was signal caller Joe Licata, who went 20-for-31 with 285 yards and two touchdowns. The 285 yards tied a career high for Licata.

Alex Neutz opened up the scoring for the Bulls late in the opening quarter as he hauled in an eight-yard touchdown strike from Licata. The touchdown reception for Neutz was his 26th career touchdown, ranking second in school history, two behind Naaman Roosevelt.

Following a missed point after attempt by the Bulls made the score 6-0, the Golden Flashes responded with a touchdown of their own as Trayion Durham bulled into the end zone from five-yards out, giving the home team the 7-6 lead with 14:27 to play in the half. It was the first time that Buffalo had trailed in a game since Sep. 14 and the first time all year that the Bulls had trailed in a MAC game.

Buffalo claimed the lead back just over a minute later as Neutz hauled in a game-long 47 yard catch to set up Oliver's first rushing touchdown on the afternoon, a five-yard scamper.

With Kent State driving towards the end of the opening half, Mack came up with the biggest defensive play of the game as he intercepted a Colin Reardon pass at the UB nine-yard line and returned the ball to the Kent State 46-yard line. Mack's team-leading third interception on the season led to an Oliver 18-yard touchdown run as he carried a Kent State defender into the end zone.

The Oliver touchdown carry gave Buffalo the 20-7 halftime lead.

Oliver added two more touchdown runs in the third quarter to cap off his career-high four touchdown effort, giving the Bulls the dominate 34-7 lead with 4:55 to play in the third.

The home team responded with back-to-back touchdowns as Dri Archer finished off a 17-yard touchdown run and Tyshon Goode hauled in a 18-yard touchdown catch, making the score 34-21 in favor of the visitors.

BUFFALO 30, OHIO 3

NOV. 5, 2013 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The University at Buffalo football team saved its best all-around performance of the season for the national stage as the Bulls defeated Ohio, 30-3, at UB Stadium on Tuesday night on ESPN2 in a showdown of two 6-2 teams. Branden Oliver set a Division I era school record with a career-best 249 yards rushing and two touchdowns to lead the Bulls to their seventh straight win.

Oliver outgained the entire Ohio team as the UB defense held the Bobcats to a season-low 233 yards of total offense. It was his fourth career 200-yard game.

"I just knew that these kids were ready to play, and they certainly showed that out on that football field for four quarters," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "I thought our defense again came up big, Bo (Oliver) had more yards rushing than they had in total offense, which says a lot about our football team. If you have a great defense, you have a chance to win a lot of football games, and that has been the formula for our success right now."

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bulls did what they've done all season – capitalized on a forced turnover. Khalil Mack forced and recovered a fumble and the Bulls drove 72 yards on just six plays for the game's first score. Oliver took the direct snap and scored from two yards out with 12:24 left in the second quarter to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead.

Ohio kicked a late field goal to make the score 7-3 and bring a quiet first half to an end.

On Ohio's first possession of the second half, Buffalo was awarded a safety after Mack and Jarrett Franklin forced an intentional grounding in the endzone. That play seemed to change the tone of the game, as on UB's ensuing possession, the Bulls marched 46 yards on eight plays and Oliver scampered the final 13 yards for his second touchdown of the game.

It opened the floodgates as the Bulls scored on their next two possessions. Joe Licata connected with Alex Neutz on scores of 25 and 24 yards to make the score 30-3. Neutz's second touchdown catch was the 28th of his career, tying Naaman Roosevelt for the school record.

Neutz finished with a team-high four catches for 79 yards. Oliver added three catches for 19 yards to total 268 all-purpose yards. Licata went 13-of-22 for 169 yards and two touchdowns.

The defense was led by Franklin who had a career-high eight tackles and 1.5 sacks. Blake Bean and Jake Stockman each added six tackles in the game. Mack finished with five tackles, a half sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

TOLEDO 51, BUFFALO 41

NOV. 12, 2013 • GLASS BOWL • TOLEDO, OH

Joe Licata threw for a school-record 497 yards and four touchdowns, but it wasn't enough as the University at Buffalo football team had its seven-game winning streak snapped by Toledo, 51-41, at the Glass Bowl on Tuesday night.

Toledo (7-3, 5-1 MAC) jumped on the Bulls early and it looked like the Rockets were going to win the game easily. Toledo piled up 350 yards of total offense in the first half and took a 31-0 lead to the locker room at halftime.

But like they've done all season, the Bulls bounced back in the second half. Licata threw for 382 yards and all four touchdowns in the second half alone. Trailing 38-0, Licata got the Bulls on the board with a 19-yard touchdown to Fred Lee. The senior receiver had a career game himself finishing with eight catches for 110 yards – both career highs.

Branden Oliver finished with 102 yards rushing, for his sixth straight 100-yard game. The senior running back scored on a six-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 38-14.

After a Toledo field goal, Licata hooked up with his favorite target Alex Neutz on his first of two touchdowns. Licata found Neutz in the corner of the endzone for a 17-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 41-21 with 10:03 left in the fourth quarter. Toledo answered with a touchdown before Licata connected with Neutz again. This time it was a quick out that Neutz was able to catch, elude two defenders and race 22 yards to the endzone. Neutz finished with eight catches for 168 yards and two touchdowns. He now owns the school record for touchdowns in a career with 30.

Following the Neutz touchdown, Tyler Grassman's onside kick was recovered by Jarrett Franklin and the Bulls were back in business.

UB cut the lead to 48-35 on a Licata to Jimmy Gordon 36-yard touchdown. Gordon also posted career highs with five catches for 70 yards in the game.

UB's next onside kick was recovered by the Rockets and Toledo kicked a field goal to make the score 51-35 with three minutes left.

Licata drove the Bulls down the field one more time and Anthone Taylor capped it off with a three-yard touchdown run. After a failed two-point conversion, the Bulls trailed 51-41.

Buffalo (7-3, 5-1 MAC) racked up 601 yards of total offense – the most ever in its Division I-A era and 27 yards shy of the all-time single game record.

Defensively, Khalil Mack tied a career-high with 15 tackles, including two tackles for loss. He is now second in NCAA history with 69.5 career tackles for loss. Okezie Alozie and Blake Bean also recorded career highs in tackles with eight apiece.

"I've seen it all year long with this team, so I wasn't surprised that these kids would come out and respond," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "I give Toledo a lot of credit. They got on us quickly. But I was proud of the way our kids got out there in the second half. They started to settle down and really understand what we came here to do. At the end of the day we didn't accomplish what we wanted to achieve."

BUFFALO 44, MIAMI (OH) 7

NOV. 19, 2013 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

Weeknight football games in the Mid-American Conference come with the tagline MACtion. After Khalil Mack's performance against Miami (OH) on Tuesday night, the conference may want to consider spelling it MACKtion.

The senior linebacker had eight tackles, three sacks and three forced fumbles in a 44-7 blowout of the RedHawks at Yager Stadium. His three forced fumbles, all in the first half, shattered the NCAA record for career forced fumbles. He now has 16 career forced fumbles, eclipsing the previous record of 14 held by five different players. Mack's three sacks moved him to within 2.5 tackles for loss of that NCAA career record as well.

The defense set the tone in the game as the Bulls held Miami to 200 yards of total offense with the majority of its yards coming late in the contest. After not registering a sack for the first time all season last week at Toledo, the Bulls erupted for a season-high seven sacks against the RedHawks. Okoye Houston had two sacks and Jake Stockman and Tedroy Lynch each had 1.5 sacks.

"We challenged our kids last week after that tough loss at Toledo and they responded," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "We came down here with a purpose and we accomplished what we came down here to accomplish and that was to win a game on the road against a MAC East rival team. To have this kind of margin of victory, it just says a lot about the leadership. I can't say enough about Khalil and what he has been able to accomplish. Because he really started things tonight and I was really pleased with the way our defense came to play."

After a scoreless first quarter, the UB offense gave the defense all it needed with a 21-point second quarter. Following a Branden Oliver 38-yard run that put the ball on the Miami 1-yard line, Joe Licata hit Alex Dennison for a 1-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead.

Oliver followed with touchdown runs of one yard and 10 yards to extend the Buffalo lead to 21-0. With the RedHawks driving late in the half, the defense decided to get into the scoring act. Mack sacked Miami quarterback Austin Gearing, jarred the ball loose, and Houston scooped it up and scampered 60 yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls ahead, 28-0, at the half.

Patrick Clarke added three second-half field goals to extend the lead to 37-0. Tony Daniel capped the scoring with his first career touchdown pass. He hit Devon Hughes on an 11-yard fade pattern to put the Bulls ahead, 44-0. Miami would score a late touchdown to make the final score, 44-7.

The 37-point win was the Bulls' largest victory in a MAC road game since joining the conference in 1999.

The Bulls piled up 517 yards of total offense, including 311 on the ground. Oliver started the game and had 150 yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries. With the Bulls holding a big lead, Anthone Taylor got some extensive playing time and capitalized by rushing for a career-best 154 yards on just 17 carries.

Licata managed the offense well, going 20-of-32 for 172 yards, a touchdown and an interception. Fred Lee, Matt Weiser and Devin Campell each had four receptions for the Bulls.

Other standouts on defense included Lee Skinner, who finished with seven tackles. Okezie Alozie had five tackles, a sack and a pass breakup. Stockman finished with 1.5 tackles for loss and his first career interception.

The Bulls improved to 8-3 with the win and 6-1 in conference play. The eight wins are the most in a regular season in their FBS era and the six MAC wins are a school record.

BOWLING GREEN 24, BUFFALO 7

NOV. 29, 2013 • RALPH WILSON STADIUM • ORCHARD PARK, NY

The University at Buffalo football team dropped its regular season finale to Bowling Green, 24-7, in front of 26,226 fans at Ralph Wilson Stadium on Friday afternoon. The Falcons earned the Mid-American Conference East Division title and advanced to next week's MAC Championship game. The Bulls finished the regular season 8-4 overall and 6-2 in the MAC and will await word of a potential bowl game.

It was a game featuring the conference's top two defenses, but in the end it was Bowling Green's defense that took control of the game. The Falcons held the Bulls to 236 yards of total offense, including a season-low 15 yards of rushing.

"Disappointing loss, but give credit to Bowling Green. They're a good football team and they made more plays than us today," head coach Jeff Quinn said, "I'm proud of our senior class to be able to secure eight regular-season wins. There was no way we wanted the regular season to end this way, but I'm excited about the opportunities that presents itself with one more game potentially."

Bowling Green struck first with a 40-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter. Midway through the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 9-play, 66-yard drive, capped by a Branden Oliver 2-yard touchdown run to give the Bulls a 7-3 lead. The key play on the drive was a Joe Licata to Devin Campbell 30-yard completion.

The UB defense clamped down the rest of the half and held a 7-3 lead at the break.

On Bowling Green's opening drive of the second half, the Falcons marched into UB territory before a Falcon pass, tipped by Khalil Mack, was intercepted by fellow linebacker Lee Skinner at the UB 19-yard line. However, the Bulls couldn't capitalize, and after being forced to punt, the Falcons marched 71 yards on nine plays and scored the go-ahead touchdown when Matt Johnson found Shaun Joplin on a 23-yard touchdown pass.

Bowling Green had two more impressive long touchdown drives. One a 7-play, 93-yard drive late in the third quarter and the other a 7-play, 81-yard drive early in the fourth quarter to take a 24-7 lead.

Defensively, the Bulls had a season-high 13 tackles for loss. Adam Redden, who was back in the lineup after missing the last three games with an injury, had a team-best three tackles for loss.

Mack led all players with 12 tackles and had 2.5 tackles for loss to tie the NCAA record for career TFLs with 75.

Other standouts on defense were Blake Bean, who finished with eight tackles, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss and Okoye Houston who had six tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss.

But it was the Bowling Green's defense that stymied the UB offense for most of the afternoon. Oliver was held to just 46 yards rushing – the first time this season he was held to under 100 yards in MAC play. The senior running back did break his own single-season rushing record in the game. He now has 1, 421 yards on the season, breaking his previous record of 1,395 yards set in 2011.

Licata finshed 21-of-45 for 221 yards and an interception. The Bulls allowed a season-high five sacks in the game. Alex Neutz had six catches for 66 yards and moved in third place in school history with 191 career catches.

SAN DIEGO STATE 49, BUFFALO 24 • FAMOUS IDAHO POTATO BOWL

DEC. 21, 2014 • BRONCO STADIUM • BOISE, ID

Playing in just its second bowl game in school history, the University at Buffalo football team lost to San Diego State, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Bronco Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls end their season with an 8-5 record.

Buffalo, a team which prided itself on taking care of the football all season, turned the ball over three times in the game. The Aztecs capitalized by scoring 21 points off those turnovers.

"It was a disappointing loss," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "You can't turn the ball over and expect to beat a good football team and that's what happened. We didn't play our very best."

San Diego State jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter before the UB offense awoke. The Bulls drove 75 yards and cut the lead in half when Joe Licata connected with Branden Oliver on a 10-yard screen pass to make the score 14-7 with 7:51 left in the half. For a player who has had 33 rushing touchdowns over his career, it was surprisingly his first career receiving touchdown.

After the Bulls defense forced a San Diego State three-and-out on its ensuing possession, they were back in business. UB drove to the Aztec 27-yard line and a Patrick Clarke 38-yard field goal cut the lead to 14-10 with 4:01 left in the half.

However, the Aztecs scored on their next possession and then with just over a minute to play in the half came up with an interception off a tipped pass. Just one play later, they punched it into the endzone to take a 28-10 lead with 38 seconds left in the half. The way the end of the half transpired seemed to take the wind out of UB's sails.

Things didn't get better for the Bulls as they fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half and San Diego State quickly struck for another touchdown to take a 35-10 lead. The Aztecs extended their lead to 42-10 before the UB offense got on the board again. Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a 23-yard touchdown strike to cut the lead to 42-17 with 14:53 left in the game. Neutz finished his career with a school-record 31 touchdown receptions.

San Diego State running back Adam Muema was dominant in the game and his third touchdown of the day put San Diego State ahead, 49-17. Muema was the MVP of the game after rushing for 229 yards and three scores.

The Bulls scored their final touchdown of the game when Licata found Fred Lee from 10 yards out with just 36 seconds left to make the final score, 49-24.

After a slow start, Licata finished the game by throwing for 196 yards and three touchdowns. He finished the season with 23 touchdown passes, one shy of the school record of 24 set by Drew Willy in 2008.

Oliver was named the Player of the Game for Buffalo after rushing for 114 yards. It was his 20th career 100-yard game – seven more than any other player in school history. He finished his outstanding career rushing for a school-record 4,049 yards. He is just the 13th player in Mid-American Conference history to rush for over 4,000 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

San Diego State ran most its plays away from All-American linebacker Khalil Mack as he was limited to six tackles. He did add a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. The loss brings an end to the storied career of Mack, arguably the greatest linebacker, if not player, in school history. He holds the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA record for career tackles for loss with 75.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was handpicked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls'

Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

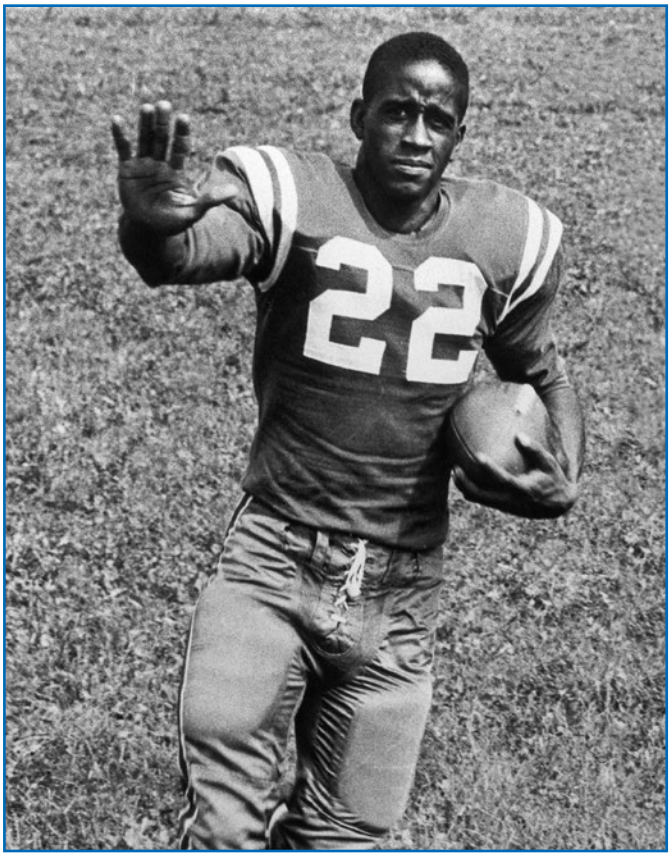
It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."



Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—10-4 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic
